Introduction

This document is designed to help fire services inform their training procurement decisions by presenting the standard courses we offer, their content, costs and our flexible methods of delivery.

We start by listing existing courses before offering details of their content.

Our aim is to give customers what they want. This means we are happy to adapt any aspect of our courses to meet their requirements in terms of duration, content, assessment, venue, delivery and date.

National Occupational Standards (NOS) and IPDS modules

Courses are designed to the National Occupational Standards for fire officers and their associated IPDS Development Modules.

Courses for Fire Officers

The courses have been designed so supervisory and middle managers can obtain the knowledge, understanding and skills they require for the following roles:

- Crew Manager
- Watch Manager
- Station Manager
- Group Manager

For details, see flow chart on following page detailing how courses build on each other

Qualifications

Xact provides BTEC qualifications. Qualifications for Supervisory and Middle Managers are available.

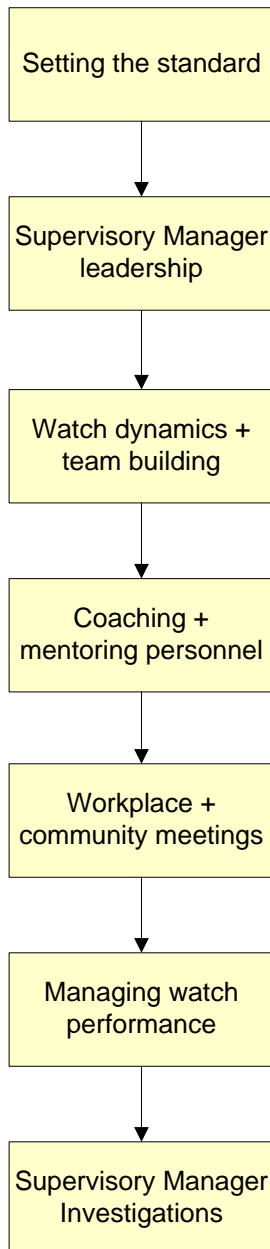

Register your interest by completing and submitting our enquiry form (see page 24). We guarantee a prompt response and look forward to hearing from you.

Course Structure

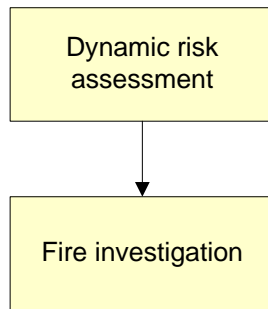

Courses stand alone, building on the previous one. Overlap and duplication are avoided to make learning as smooth-running and cost-effective as possible.

 Middle Manager

Supervisory manager: Setting organisational standards

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To enable delegates to understand the organisations behavioural policies

Subject areas:

- Equality and diversity
- Disability
- Sex, race and age discrimination
- Bullying and harassment
- Discipline and grievance

Learning process

An organisation's policy statements reflect the standards of behaviour expected of its personnel. We show delegates how to meet those expectations themselves while supporting those they manage to do so also. In this way, the training complements directly our Managing watch performance course (SPM6)

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

1 day

IPDS modules

004, 062

Supervisory manager: Crew and watch manager leadership

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with the knowledge and understanding to lead in a range of operational and non-operational settings

Outcomes

To enable delegates to:

- understand principles and styles of leadership
- understand and explain their own style of leadership
- lead in the workplace on a watch / station
- apply leadership in an operational setting to achieve service objectives

Learning process

"What makes a good leader?" is the question posed by this module. We support delegates to examine the role of leaders in The Fire Service; leadership styles past and present and leading in operational contexts. They will also complete a case study of a leader supported by leadership theory

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

2 days

IPDS modules

003, 053

Supervisory manager: Watch dynamics and team building

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with the knowledge, understanding and skills to manage watch personnel

Outcomes

To enable delegates to:

- recognise good verbal and non-verbal communication and its link to effective management of groups
- identify techniques to improve effective group development and leadership
- distinguish different types of teams, their purpose and how to build and develop team strength

Learning process

We offer an introduction to group dynamics and team building including an exploration of the importance of teams featuring a wide range of talents and an emphasis on Equality and Diversity. Recreations of real-life situations help delegates practise theoretical models and identify different team roles

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

2 days

IPDS modules

022, 082

Supervisory manager: Coaching + mentoring personnel

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with the knowledge, understanding and skills to improve performance of personnel with coaching and mentoring

Outcomes

To enable delegates to:

- recognise non-verbal communication
- understand how to influence through communication
- conduct action-centred learning

Learning process

We show delegates how to coach and mentor effectively, with lots of opportunity for practice. They join actors in role-play that recreates workplace scenarios featuring both watch personnel and members of the public

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

2 days

IPDS modules

002, 005, 023, 039, 040, 070, 076

Supervisory manager: Workplace and partnership meetings

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with skills and practical experience to participate in and chair a range of internal and external meetings

Outcomes

To enable delegates to:

- understand the underpinning principles of meetings
- prepare and chair an internal meeting
- gain an overview of local strategic partnership
- participate in a local strategic partnership meeting at neighbourhood/community level

Learning process

Here delegates learn how to perform effectively at meetings - both those internal to The Fire Service and those involving community leaders. How the service fits in with the current partnership landscape is explored. The module also includes an introduction to effective communication skills with role-play sessions featuring delegates and actors

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

2 days

IPDS modules

011, 025, 026, 049

Supervisory manager: Managing watch performance

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with the knowledge, understanding and skills to manage performance at watch level

Outcomes

To enable delegates to:

- manage lateness, short-term sickness and return-to-work interviews
- tackle inappropriate behaviour on watches and in general workplace
- deliver performance required by line managers
- manage fire-fighter performance

Learning process

This course supports crew and watch managers to manage face-to-face reviews of individual performance effectively. Delegates have the opportunity to develop communication skills alongside actors in true-to-life scenarios addressing issues such as absence management, poor performance and inappropriate behaviour. An overview of performance management and its place in The Fire Service is included

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

2 days

IPDS modules

007, 012, 038, 039, 076

Supervisory manager: Investigations

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To enable delegates to investigate a range of low level investigations including discipline, grievance, performance and accidents at work

Outcomes

To enable delegates to:

- understand the organisational needs for investigation
- plan, collate and evaluate evidence in a range of settings
- conduct interviews
- report findings

Learning process

In groups (syndicates) of up to 4, each syndicate investigate different reconstructions of workplace investigations. Actors feature in this skills-based practice where syndicates:

- analyse evidence and formulate investigation plans
- conduct formal interviews
- produce an investigation case file with summary and supporting evidence
- present their findings to a Station Manager

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

3 days

IPDS modules

001, 009, 019, 020, 069, 087, 088

Supervisory manager: Dynamic risk assessment

Target audience

Firefighters, crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with a practical understanding of the dynamic risk process

Outcomes

To enable delegates to understand:

- hazard recognition and risk control
- safe person concept
- consideration factors when making operational decisions
- management of personnel and resources during dynamic risk situations

Delegates will also learn to:

- develop safe systems of work during an incident

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and exercises.

Facilitated by the tutor, delegates operate in groups for exercises. We find that this way of working encourages group members to become fully engaged in the learning process. It also encourages them to share existing experience and skills.

Duration

4 hours

IPDS modules

Supervisory manager: Level 1 Fire investigation

Target audience

Crew and watch managers

Aim

To provide delegates with a practical understanding of investigating fire scenes

Subject areas

To enable delegates to understand:

- fire behaviour
- heat transfer, ignition and ventilation
- burn patterns and charring
- spalling
- behaviour of electrical items in fire
- glass behaviour

Learning process

Here we re-enforce learning with photographs and objects from fire scenes. The final exercise takes place in a fire behaviour unit, where a fire scene has been set up. Delegates' scene investigation involves:

- Identifying how the fire started and spread
- Preserving the scene at operational incidents

Delivery

PowerPoint presentations, flipchart explanation, group discussion, individual tuition and practical sessions

Duration

1 day

IPDS modules

Middle manager: Investigations

Level 4: Professional Award: Core Skills for Investigators

Target audience

Station and group managers

Aim

To enable delegates to conduct a range of investigations including discipline, grievance, performance, complaints and accidents at work

Course content

- Powers, duties and responsibilities
- Investigation best practice
- Investigation planning
- Evidence gathering, evaluation and continuity
- Taking statements
- Investigative interviewing
- Investigation case file report
- Giving evidence in formal hearings

Learning methods and syndicates

Facilitated by tutors, delegates conduct exercises in groups of up to 4 to fully engage in the interactive experiential learning process and so they can share existing experience and skills. In syndicates, they conduct investigations after receiving packs covering different contraventions and containing details of previous events, records, pictures and statements. Tutors and actors offer syndicates support and feedback.

In groups (syndicates) of up to 4, syndicates investigate a different investigation such as bullying, harassment, discipline and accident at work. Actors feature in this skills-based practice where syndicates:

- analyse evidence and formulate investigation plans
- conduct formal interviews and take statements
- produce an investigation case file with summary and supporting evidence
- face cross-examination in hearings about their investigation

The formal hearing sessions replicate, managing cross-examination and introducing documents in witness box. They are chaired by a magistrate, reconstructions of hearings take place for each syndicates' investigation. Investigators are led through their findings before cross-examination by a lawyer in front of the rest of the cohort

Duration
